John 13:17 "Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them." (NIV)

In this passage, Jesus was talking about how important it is for us to serve each other. As this verse emphasizes, the real blessing comes from not just agreeing with a concept but putting it into action. Come learn how to serve others by helping them take intentional action. Note: nothing ever changes unless action is taken. Knowledge alone is insufficient.

Teacher: Arden Adamson

- ◆ Certified coach with the International Coach Federation and AG Coaching
- ◆ Former District Superintendent for the Wisconsin-Northern Michigan Assemblies of God

"When Arden was still District Superintendent, I sat in on a conversation during which he discussed a problem situation with an individual. Arden coached this person until he realized his own solution. The coach approach worked very well.

I recommend this helping skill to all our ministers and lay people."

Larry Liebe, District Superintendent

What this seminar covers...

Unit 501 – Foundations of Christian Coaching

(by Coach Approach Ministries, Inc.)

This course introduces the definition and unique aspects of coaching as compared with various other helping relationships. It also provides an overview of the necessary knowledge, basic coaching skills and conversation models. Students will spend time developing the basic skills of coaching.

Who should consider receiving this training?

- ◆ Anyone who wishes to help someone else excel.
- ◆ Anyone who desires a powerful skill in working with people.

The Benefits of Coaching...

1. People accelerate their progress in personal growth and work.
2. Enables people to make new discoveries.
3. Puts dormant knowledge into action.
4. Easier to handle problem situations (and people).
5. Builds other people up.
6. Helps people take responsibility for their own progress.
7. Helps people discover their best future.

What others are saying...

... about coach training:

“It opened for me a whole new world to help people in their walk with God. Coaching is a valuable catalyst to assist a person to change habits, shift direction, edit behaviors and perspectives that will steer their future decisions to support God-given dreams...”

Kevin Taylor, Journey Church, Kenosha

“I have been using coaching quite a bit lately with my family and people calling in that...are at the end of their rope. It is so easy. I just ask questions—they figure out their own problems. Crazy good. I have a real strategy that really works. I just can’t thank you enough.”

Bob Griffith, Journey Church, Kenosha

“Coaching principles have changed most of my approach to helping people. It [is] easier now to not automatically turn on the “counseling hat” and slide seamlessly into a coaching mode. A load of relief also comes with this approach as I’m not responsible for their choices/decisions for the future. It’s working and is so helpful to the other person. Thanks for pointing me in this direction.”

Steve Schroepfer, pastor, Antigo

Proverbs 20:5 “The purposes of a man’s heart are deep waters, but a man of understanding draws them out.” (NIV)

Jesus used powerful questions to bring to light the purposes of the hearts of those around him and to create life-long shifts in their thinking. Coach training will help you learn how to ask great questions that “draw out” answers from others versus always having to have all the answers yourself.

... about being coached:

“This time has been very good, very successful, phenomenal. I really like this. Every pastor can benefit from having a trained and knowledgeable coach.”

“Definitely given me direction. Clarified where I need to go and how to get there.”

“Coaching is a tremendous help to me.”

“My personal experience with Arden and MaxPath Coaching has been stellar. Arden has successfully coached me through many situations. Every time I come away with a clear action plan and a better understanding of what I really need to do to get the results I want.”

Proverbs 18:13 “He who answers before listening, that is his folly and his shame.” (NIV)

Everyone can have more effective relationships by listening more carefully. Leaders can have greater influence on people they have thoroughly heard. Coach training will teach you how to listen with the other person’s best interests at heart.
